Second Sunday after Christmas

4 January 2026

Dr Scott Hahn reflects on the forthcoming Feast of the Epiphany, a Holy Day of Obligation.

Is 60:1-6; Ps 72:12, 7-8, 10-13; Eph 3:2-3, 5-6; Matt 2:1-12

An “epiphany” is an appearance. In Tuesday’s readings, with their rising stars, splendidurous lights and mysteries revealed, the face of the Child born on Christmas Day appears.

Herod, in the Epiphany Gospel, asks the chief priests and scribes where the Messiah is to be born. The answer Matthew puts on their lips says much more, combining two strands of Old Testament promise — one revealing the Messiah to be from the line of David (see 2 Samuel 2:5), the other predicting “a ruler of Israel” who will “shepherd his flock” and whose “greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth” (see Micah 5:1-3).

Those promises of Israel’s king ruling the nations resound also in the Psalm. The psalm celebrates David’s son, Solomon. His kingdom, we sing, will stretch “to the ends of the earth,” and the world’s kings will pay Him homage. That’s the scene too in the First Reading, as nations stream from the East, bearing “gold and frankincense” for Israel’s king.

The Magi’s pilgrimage in the Gospel marks the fulfillment of God’s promises. The Magi, probably Persian astrologers, are following the star that Balaam predicted would rise along with the ruler’s staff over the house of Jacob (see Numbers 24:17).

Laden with gold and spices, their journey evokes those made to Solomon by the Queen of Sheba and the “kings of the earth” (see 1 Kings 10:2,25; 2 Chronicles 9:24). Interestingly, the only other places where frankincense and myrrh are mentioned together are in songs about Solomon (see Song of Songs 3:6, 4:6,14).

One greater than Solomon is here (see Luke 11:31). He has come to reveal that all peoples are “co-heirs” of the royal family of Israel, as the Epistle teaches.

His manifestation forces us to choose: Will we follow the signs that lead to Him as the wise Magi did? Or will we be like those priests and the scribes who let God’s words of promise become dead letters on an ancient page?

Fr Neil and Deacon Eugene would like to thank all those who have supported the parish in any way during the Christmas season and those who have generously given gifts and cards to the parish clergy. Thank you also to all who help out generally in the parish of CTK and St Joachim’s throughout the year. Your support is very much appreciated. Happy 2026 to you all!

Masses return to their new normal this week, as shown on the back page: Mass on Tuesdays at CTK is now at noon, and on Fridays at 10am. Wednesdays at St Joachim’s, Thursday evenings and the First Saturday Mass are unchanged.

The Epiphany of the Lord will be celebrated this coming Tuesday. It is a Holy Day of Obligation, which means (not least out of love and support for one another) we should make every reasonable effort to be present at Mass on this day. Holy Mass will be offered at noon and 7pm, both at CTK.

If you have inadvertently taken Mass cards or booklets home from CTK or St Joachim’s, please bring them back.

Lumen Christi, the programme for our young people receiving the sacrament of Confirmation meets next this coming Saturday, 3:30–6:45pm at OLR church hall. The topics are the Holy Spirit, the saints, sacrament of Reconciliation. The meeting will finish with Mass at 6:00pm.

CWL Christmas Tree of Giving provided an opportunity to buy a gift for a needy child this Christmas, and the League says a very big thank you to all who have supported it. The designated charity was Warming Up the Homeless, which supports children and families in temporary accommodation.

Matthew 25 Mission is in need of donations at this time of the year. They particularly need tinned and package foodstuffs, long life milk, coffee and tea, dry pasta, as well as men's and women's winter clothes.

Crib Offerings are donated to the Catholic Children's Society (A&B Crisis Fund), which supports needy families. The crib will be in church until Candlemas on 2 February.

Eastbourne Catholic Women's League meets this Wednesday (7 January) in the CTK Parish Room, 7:00–9:00pm. Come and join us as we spend time supporting the parish and each other. There are leaflets at the back of the church if you would like to find out more about the CWL.

We look forward to welcoming those who have booked to the Epiphany Celebration Meal at the Alexandra Arms this coming Saturday.

CTK Seniors next meet on 14 January at 12:30pm (note change of time) in the Parish Room. It will be a post-Christmas celebration with a guest singer to welcome us into 2026!

Pilgrimage to Poland May 2026: the parish is organising a seven-day pilgrimage to Poland from 26 May to 1 June 2026, including the shrine in Częstochowa and the Divine Mercy Basilica in Krakow as well as visits to Auschwitz, Wadowice and the Wieliczka Salt Mine. Masses will be celebrated by Fr Neil in different churches each day. We have been able to improve on the offer which was first advertised, although costs can change. The price is now £995pp sharing or £1200 in a single room, which also includes return flights, airport duty and taxes, one suitcase, six nights' half-board (dinner, bed and breakfast), excursions and a travel representative. More information from Ilona on 07904 680885. If you are interested, please put your name on the list at the back of the churches or call Ilona.

There is now a monthly newsletter for the seven churches of the West Hub of the New Parish of Eastbourne and St Leonards, with another for the East Hub. January's is yellow, and features an article by Fr Neil. This weekly leaflet for the two churches in Langney and Hampden Park complements the monthly publication across the deanery.

Phoenix Choir Eastbourne & Maastricht present The Messiah by George Frideric Handel with international soloists and a baroque orchestra on 7 February 2026 at 7pm at All Saints' Church, Grange Road. See the poster at the back of the church.

Notices for this leaflet and/or the Deanery Newsletter should be sent to Dominic via the parish's current email address of priest.ctk@icloud.com.

You can sign up to receive news from the Diocese of Arundel & Brighton, including the weekly message from senior clergy. Go to <https://tinyurl.com/ABnewslist> or point your smartphone at the QR code here. There wasn't an email issued this week due to the Christmas celebrations, but it usually arrives on Thursdays.

You can sign up to receive news from the Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham by visiting their website at ordinariate.org.uk: enter your email address about halfway down the page. Their recent email features a pastoral letter from Bishop David and a bit about Fr Neil too.

Votive Candles: Would you like to sponsor a candle for a personal intention or a special need at CTK? There are Masses available at both churches. Request forms for candles or Masses are available, which each include a card to give to those being prayed for.

We pray for all the sick of the parish, and especially: Eithne Lloyd, Stuart McCarthy, Marie Williams, Maria P Veras, Sylvia Brady, Alexandra Waters, Neidilane Emerch, Rose Hellyer, Graham Pegley, Serena May, Enogue G Peixoto, Freda Swales, Vicky Ferrera, and baby Autumn.

And we pray for the repose of the souls of all the faithful departed, especially Mick Smitherman RIP, Robert Cutler RIP, Robert Anthony John “Tony” Roberts RIP and Walston Julien RIP who have recently died, and all those who have no-one to pray for them.

Pope Leo’s Prayer intention for January is for prayer with the Word of God: ‘Let us pray that praying with the Word of God nourishes our lives and brings hope to our communities, building a more fraternal and missionary Church.’
